Foolish Questions

A. Baldwin Sloane, William Lee

F A7 D7
Now you've all heard the Foolish Questions And you've no doubt wondered why

G7 C7
Some person will ask a Foolish Question and expect a sensible reply

F A7 D7
Like when you take your girl some candy, Say maybe - just after tea

G7 C7
The first thing she'll ask you is... - "Is that for me?"

F A7 D7
- Foolish Questions! - You might as well reply

G7 C7
"No I bought this candy for your Ma or Pa!" or "It's for some other guy!"

F A7 D7
"I just thought you'd like to see it, - Now I'm gonna take it away."

G7 C7 F C7 F
Now wasn't that a Foolish Question? You'll hear 'em every day

Now then there's this fellow who is always hanging around the place
He watches you take your shaving brush and start to lather up your face
And as you give the razor a preliminary wave
This fellow will walk up to you and ask, "Are you gonna shave?"

Foolish Questions! Your answer is, I hope,
"Nope! I'm not prepared for shavin', I just like the taste of soap!"
I kinda like to take the shaving brush and paint myself up this way
Now wasn't that a Foolish Question? You'll hear 'em everyday!

Now suppose the elevator guy should forget to close the door
And you should tumble down oh say forty-seven floors
And when you reach the bottom and you're lying there inert
Some fool will come walking up and ask, "Are you hurt?"

Foolish Questions! Your dying words are,
"No! I was in an awful hurry and that elevator's just too slow
"Usually saves a lot of time, You know, Coming down this way
Now wasn't that a Foolish Question? You'll hear 'em everyday!
